

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

The Golden Spikes is presented annually to the top amateur baseball player in the country as selected by a special committee for the United States Baseball Federation.

For the past 35 years, USA Baseball has honored the top amateur baseball player in the country with the Golden Spikes Award (see winners box). The award is presented each year to the player who exhibits exceptional athletic ability and exemplary sportsmanship. Past winners of this prestigious award include Major League Baseball stars Stephen Strasburg, Jered Weaver, Tim Lincecum, David Price and Florida State's Buster Posey.

The Golden Spikes Award is sponsored by the Major League Baseball Players Association (MLBPA), underscoring the commitment of Major League Baseball to the grassroots development of baseball programs, particularly for youth, around the world. The MLBPA supports USA Baseball's ongoing efforts to provide instruction for youth baseball players, coaches and volunteers, and to prepare amateur athletes for professional competition.

USA Baseball is the national governing body of amateur baseball in the United States. The organization selects and trains the USA Baseball National Team, the USA Baseball Junior National Team (18-under), and the USA Baseball Youth National Team (16-under), which participate in various national and international competitions each year.
